

About Us

The Messiah project, Inc. is a not-for-profit fine arts organization headquartered in Springfield, Missouri. Our mission is to promote our Jewish and Christian heritage through the performing arts.

Founded in 1991, the organization is sustained by a diverse volunteer base and has provided artists with opportunities to turn performance into expressions of faith, while reaching audiences in Springfield, the Midwest, and throughout the world.

We have grown to become one of the most dynamic Christian-based arts organizations in operation today. We have an established reputation for integrating classical music with dance and drama, which enhances the experience of our audience.

In a world fragmented and confused,
A clarion call-
As a trumpet-sounds forth among
The people of God
To gather in His name,
To remember His goodness,
To proclaim His faithfulness,
To show forth His praise
Among the nations, among all peoples.

Arts Competition

For Middle School & High School Students
Featuring Winter and Holiday themes

Registration forms available at your local McDonalds or register online at www.messiahproject.org

Sponsored in part by McDonald's of the Ozarks